Description of major: Foreign language is a branch of the language arts that involves the study of languages other than one's native tongue. Studies in foreign language seek to improve the ability to communicate, to develop cultural awareness and sensitivity to expand general knowledge and to promote more appreciation and tolerance for other cultures. Proficiency in more than one language is becoming an increasingly valuable acquisition and enhances the student's occupational possibilities.

Regardless of your career choice, increase your marketability to employers through internships, related work experience, good grades, and involvement in college activities.
