IMPORTANT REMINDER

International students must have funds on deposit and withdrawable from U. S. banks or other sources to cover all living and educational expenses for a minimum of one year. These funds must also be available on a continuous basis to ensure adequate financing during the student's entire educational stay in the United States. No financial aid is available to international students, although limited funds are sometimes made available by local community organizations through the Financial Aid Office.

Effective July 1, 2004, Palm Beach Community College does not own or operate student dormitories, apartments or townhouses. The student housing facility previously owned by the college and its foundation is now known as Palm Club Apartments. They are located at 2425 Second Avenue, Lake Worth, and can be contacted at 561-582-9100.
